I must commend all participants in their endeavors. When I printed out all the pictures last evening and had several people help put on Wall to help us look at them.

I must admit that the picture by Cindy and Paul with the palm trees and beach with the sun either rising or setting and the very large alligator on the beach immediately caught my eye.

I also like the simplicity of Beth's picture of the sun beams raining down upon the person in the lounge chair.

Also must say I very much enjoyed the picture by Erin and Tammy. That picture has it all. Beach, trees, umbrella and seagulls flying with the cruise ship in the background.

So my choices are as follows:

1. Cindy and Paul (10 points from Dianne)
2. Beth (7 points from Dianne)
3. Erin and Tammy (4 points from Dianne)

Honorable Mention: Tracie and Heidi (2 points from Dianne)

I'm wondering if the picture Tracy and Heidi did has the skyline bridge in the background? If not, I'm not clear as to what it is.

As always I commend all participants for their efforts and hope the weather has been wonderful. I remember St. Pete and Tampa quite well from almost 10 years of living there. Dianne Steve, I got to see the pictures, thanks to Dianne. They all looked great.

I would say that my favorite was the one by Tracie and Heidi.

The picture by Pam and Marianne and the one by Erin and Tammy gave off the same tropical feeling.

The same could be said of the ones by Jane and Janet and Joyce and Krista. The one that was different was from Neal and Susan who seem to like crew rather than hanging out at the beach. Even though I didn't mention the others by name, they did do a good job and I hope they had fun.

First Place: Tracie and Heidi (10 points from Richard)

Second Place Tie for same tropical feeling:
Pam and Marianne (7 points from Richard)
Erin and Tammy (7 points from Richard)

Third Place Tie
Jane and Janet (4 points from Richard)
Joyce and Krista (4 points from Richard)

Honorable Mention for "being different":
Neal and Susan (2 points from Richard)

Please find attached comments on Summercore.

1. The one by Chelsea and Maureen showed a very painterly control of blending of colors and the choice of dynamics as well as color choice. I kept coming back to this painting because it was so nice to look at as well as soothing.

2. The one by Pam and Marianne makes me feel hot just looking at it. The Sun looks like it's beaming down to the sand heating it up to the temperature of lava, and we ridiculous people cavort in it like children in a sand box!

3. This one by Erin and Tammy is rather peculiar in many ways. First would be – color – is that sand, or sand paper? The second – texture, is that a palm tree or a frightened animal with green fur, aka Grover, whom I am told is blue and not green -- the person helping me with this has had experience with both.

4. Honorable Mention: Beth and her picture of a person burnt to a cinder on a hammock with too much sun exposure – it must be an advertisement for people to limit their sun exposure – what a kill joy!

First Place: Chelsea and Maureen (10 points from Colleen)

Second Place: Pam and Marianne (7 points from Colleen)

Third Place: Erin and Tammy (4 points from Colleen)

Honorable Mention: Beth (2 points from Colleen)

The grand tally is done on a spreadsheet so we can find out who wins the GOLD, the SILVER and the BRONZE.

Only in Florida could the judging be this controversial ;-)
